

Dear District Bankruptcy Court of Delaware, in regard to Case No. 22-11068

Nov 13th, 2024

My name is Lucas Brito and I am writing into you today to file an objection on behalf of myself over the Omnibus objection I just received last week about my unliquidated Proof of Claims.

I have been repeatedly attempting to contact support via various emails throughout this last year in regards to access to my account for me to follow up on my claim. I was never given access until after the date for filing had already past (by over 3 months as well mind you)

I have the emails saved as proof of my continued attempts to contact their support system to handle this matter and was repeatedly told that the matter had already been resolved when it hadn't been or I was sent around to other support agents and forced to start the entire support process over again from step 1. As you can imagine this has gotten to the point where I am irate and would just like to have my unliquidated claims be given back to me without anymore hassle.

Attached inside this envelope will be my proof of claims along with a copy of the documents I received via email.

This letter is an official objection to the Debtors one-hundred twenty-fourth (Substantive) Omnibus Objection to Certain Fully or Partially Unliquidated Proofs of Claims.

As stated within the document, this is my written objection which was sent on Nov 13th, 2024 via signed letter to the District Bankruptcy Court of Delaware.

Signed: Lucas L Brito

Reason: The Debtors have conducted a review of the filed proof of claim and any related accompanying materials and their books and records. Based on this review, the Debtor submits that the customer asserted cryptocurrency quantities and fiat which does not match the quantities and holdings in such customer's accounts. Accordingly, the Debtors seek to modify the asserted claim to match their books and records.
